

Presentation Pistols by John Manton

Acquisition of a pair of presentation pistols, a matching pair of flintlocks with patent self-priming mechanism by John Manton of London, 1832. Their were presented by the Commander of the Yeomanry, The Earl of Plymouth, to his adjutant Captain W Emmott.

Nation/region

West Midlands

Grant awarded

£925

Award date

27/05/1988