

Purchase of the Dalhousie Archive

The Dalhousie papers are a national historical resource covering numerous subjects over 800 years. Many of the significant events in Scottish history are told in the papers and there are also major groups of records relating to the emergence and subsequent governance of parts of the British Empire.

Region

Scotland

Grant awarded

£800,000

Year awarded

2007