

Queen Street Mill, Burnley

Acquisition of and repairs to Queen Street Mill, Burnley, the last remaining working, steam-driven weaving mill in the North West of England. It retains its original coal-fired steam engine together with some 300 looms.

Nation/region

North West

Grant awarded

£200,000

Award date

27/09/1990