

Romano-Celtic Boat from Magor, Gwent

Conservation of excavated Romano-Celtic boat discovered at Barlands Farm, near Magor, Gwent. Pottery, coins and other finds, and dendrochronological analysis date the boat to around AD 300. It was conserved by York Archaeological Trust for display at Newport Museum.

Nation/region

Wales

Grant awarded

£22,250

Award date

26/09/1995