

Rusper Chalice

Acquisition of a copper enamelled and gilded chalice, dated to 1195 and found in the tomb of an unidentified woman on the site of the Benedictine nunnery of Rusper, near Horsham in Sussex in 1840.

Region

London

Grant awarded

£300,000

Year awarded

1996