

Scandal, by Charles Sargeant Jagger, 1930

Bronze relief entitled Scandal, commissioned from Charles Sargeant Jagger in 1930 for the drawing room of Mulberry House, Smith Square, Westminster and to reunite it with the fire basket commissioned alongside it. The relief, signed, documented and dated, formed an integral part of an opulently decorated interior designed in 1930 by the architect Darcy Braddell (1884-1970). The fire basket also designed by Jagger, was acquired by the V&A in 2005.

Image

Bronze 'Scandal' relief, by Charles Sargeant Jagger

Nation/region

London

Grant awarded

£45,000

Award date

11/12/2007

Related News

V&A acquires a 'Scandal' by leading British sculptor Charles Sargeant Jagger

The work by leading British sculptor Charles Sargeant Jagger (1885-1934) has been bought with generous donations from The Art Fund, the National Heritage Memorial Fund (NHMF), Old Possum's Practical Trust and private donors and will go on display from 22 April in the V&A's Dorothy and Michael Hintze Sculpture Galleries.