

Shaffron from Warwick Castle

Acquisition of a shaffron - the helmet part of a horse armour. It was known to have been at Warwick Castle since at least the 17th century. Made around 1400, it is the earliest piece of horse armour surviving anywhere in the world.

Nation/region

Yorkshire and the Humber

Grant awarded

£25,000

Award date

24/03/1998