

St John Triptych. St Mary's Lydiard Tregoze

Conservation of set of painted panels hanging in the sanctuary of St Mary's Church. Nucleus of the tryptych depicts St John St John, who died in 1594, together with his wife Lucy Hungerford, kneeling in prayer on top of a sarcophagus while the younger Sir John, who commissioned the monument in 1615, stands to the left with his wife Anne Leighton. His 6 sisters are ranged to the right.
