

Tompion Spring Watch

Acquisition of an early spring balance watch by Thomas Tompion, who first applied the balance spring in England. The watch was made sometime after 1675, but before 1680. It is believed to be the earliest Tompion watch with a second hand in existence.

Nation/region

London

Grant awarded

£20,000

Award date

25/07/1985