

Woodgreen Village Hall Murals

Restoration of the murals in Woodgreen Village Hall, Hampshire. They were executed in 1930-31 by students of Sir William Rothenstein using the fresco method. They depict the changing seasons and activities around the village. The paintings needed cleaning and stabilising as part of a programme of structural repairs to the whole building.

Nation/region

South East

Grant awarded

£3,330

Award date

28/06/1990