

Dornier Do 17 Recovery

The RAF Museum wishes to recover the only remaining intact Second World War German Dornier Do17 bomber from the shallows off Goodwin Sands, Kent.

Image

Sonar scan of the Dornier DO-17 on the seabed

Region

London

Grant awarded

£343,826

Year awarded

2011

Related News

Rescue of last Second World War Dornier Do 17 bomber from the sea begins

Today, the Royal Air Force Museum is pleased to announce the start of a ground-breaking operation to raise from the English Channel the last surviving Dornier Do 17, an historic Second World War German Bomber shot down 72 years ago during the Battle of Britain.