

Katrina Norris

Katrina Norris is an experienced Investment Manager and has worked in the industry since 1993. She has been an Equity Analyst and managed both UK pension funds, as well as two hedge funds. Since 2009 she has been managing global equity and multi-asset portfolios for charities and private clients. Katrina is passionate about investing and understands the importance of generating long term returns for charities.

She has a degree in Economics and Statistics from Exeter University.