

Barendyne Helm

Acquisition of a 'frog-mouthed' jousting helm, formerly associated with the tomb of Sir William Barendyne, High Sherrif of Oxfordshire and Berkshire in the reign of Henry VIII. To be displayed at the Royal Armouries in Leeds.

Region

Yorkshire and the Humber

Grant awarded

£40,000

Year awarded

1996