

Brockadale Plantation

Acquisition of 69 acres of Brockadale Plantation, a wooded valley containing ash, sycamore and beech, a rich herbacious flora and a good colony of breeding birds. The plantation had been managed under lease by the wildlife trust, but the Forestry Commission is selling the freehold.

Nation/region

Yorkshire and the Humber

Grant awarded

£10,083

Award date

25/07/1985