

Burton Constable Wine Coolers

Acquisition of pair of neo-classical wine cisterns of carved and gilded pine and limewood, sarcophagus shaped, with tiger's heads with brass rings on the end; paw feet, 1769. Supplied to Burton Constable Hall as part of an ensemble of furniture designed by Lightoler and made by Jeremiah Hargrave.

Nation/region

Yorkshire and the Humber

Grant awarded

£120,000

Award date

22/10/1987