

Dale House, Coalbrookdale

Acquisition of Dale House, built by Abraham Darby I in 1715 in the heart of Coalbrookdale overlooking the Old Furnace. It was the home of his son, Abraham Derby II for many years, then became the residence of the works manager.

Region

West Midlands

Grant awarded

£20,000

Year awarded

1982