

Devey Drawings

Acquisition of a large archive of drawings by George Devey (1820-1886), who specialised in country houses, with the successor practices of Arthur Castings and Godfrey and Wratten and Godfrey, and was a pioneer of the Vernacular revival in English domestic architecture.

Region

London

Grant awarded

£11,500

Year awarded

1990