

Drawnet at Tenby by Ibbetson

Acquisition of watercolour, 'A Drawnet at Tenby' by Julius Caesar Ibbetson (1759-1817). Ibbetson's tour of Wales in 1792 resulted in a number of finished watercolours and it is likely that Tenby was one of the last stops on the tour. This was one of a pair painted for the artist's friend George Thanson of Edinburgh.
