GMAM Garratt Locomotive

Acquisition and transport back to the UK of a steam locomotive built between 1954-58 at Springburn, NE of Glasgow for export of South Africa. It is the last surviving steam engine built in Scotland. For display at Springburn Museum and eventually at a new Locomotive Hall on the site.

Nation/region Scotland Grant awarded £17,000 Award date 28/06/1990