

Kenwood Furniture

Acquisition of a pair of George III giltwood pier glasses and marble-topped tables. These appear in record for Kenwood throughout the 19th century but were sold, with the other contents, in 1922. Their style suggests they were commissioned by the 1st Earl of Mansfield in the 1750s or 1760s.

Region

London

Grant awarded

£200,000

Year awarded

1993