

Medical Society of London Library

Acquisition of the library of the Medical Society of London that was founded in the 18th century. The library consists of manuscripts, mostly 18th century, with some medieval and significant Renaissance Greek texts, tracts and a substantial number of printed books and periodicals.

Nation/region

London

Grant awarded

£125,000

Award date

23/06/1983