

Morris Tapestry, Angeli Ministrantes

Acquisition of Tapestry made in 1894 in the workshops of William Morris and Co. One of a pair of large tapestries woven in wool and silk. The other Angeli Laudantes - was already in the V&A's collection. To designs by Edward Burne-Jones with the borders and background by Morris and Henry Dearle.

Nation/region

London

Grant awarded

£65,625

Award date

29/07/1993